

I do not want The Consumers Banker Association, or anyone else for that matter, contacting me at all. If I am in need of any of their services, I can contact them. I can see no reason why anyone should be disrupting me through telephone contact.